

Wed. Sept. 11, 1914

Dear Vicki and Jim,

Mary and Dave are going home tomorrow and I will take Dad to work and spend the day with Mary for as long as she needs me. She feels real good now and the baby is perfect. This picture of her was taken right after she was born and she immediately started looking all around and raising her head up. She is so cute now as her face has filled out in just such a short time and she looks so sweet and cute. Dad and I just got home from the hospital and I have Mary's laundry started in the washing machine.

Thurs. Morn.

I have been washing and ironing and will go over to Mary's when she calls. I should not send you this picture of the baby because the hospital pictures of the new born are never good, and she is just darling now. She is only two hours old in the picture. She already looks all around and lifts her head up. (I just told you that)

Anyway Dad and I had dinner at an Italian restaurant Monday night. Tuesday night we had dinner at the Polykasion on the east front, and last night I fixed dinner at the apartment. I will call you as soon as I am home at the right time. (P.S. The baby doesn't have a big nose.) Love, Mom.